Alfaisal University Library
User Behavior and Library Building Policies

Alfaisal Library strives to maintain a welcoming, comfortable, and safe environment for all users, i.e., anyone who enters our buildings. Users of the Alfaisal Library are expected to maintain behavior that consistently respects the rights of other users to study and research within the buildings. Users are also expected to adhere to Alfaisal Library policies as well as relevant University rules and regulations. Users are encouraged to support this effort by informing other users of these policies.

Library building monitors or other staff will ask users engaging in behavior that disrupts the study and effective use of the Libraries (for example, playing music or making other loud noises) to curtail the disruptive behavior or leave the building. The Library staff reserves the right to determine what conduct constitutes "disruptive behavior." If the disruptive behavior persists, library building monitors or other staff will contact the campus security for assistance. Alfaisal Library's user behavior expectations follow.

Cell Phone
When entering any library building, please set cell phones, pagers, and other electronic devices to silent or vibrate mode. Conduct noisy cell phone conversations in designated areas or outside.

Children
Children are not allowed the Library.

Clothing
Users must wear appropriate attire for public places, including shoes, at all times when in the Alfaisal Library.

Food and Beverages
Food and beverages are not allowed in the Library with the exception of beverages that are in closed, spill-proof containers or pull-top plastic bottles.

Closing Time
In Alfaisal Library, verbal warnings are giving several times before closing: once 30 minutes before closing, twice 15 minutes before closing, three times 5 minutes before closing, and last one at closing time. Users are expected to cooperate with staff when closing time is announced and leave the building.
